

When you click on the PDF Supplement button your computer will download any materials that are associated with the course in a PDF document. We prefer to have course documents that supplement the video seminar. If the seminar had a Power Point presentation, we will include the original Power Point slides and the supplemental text that was handed out at the seminar. You should save the PDF document on your computer for future reference.